City Manager's Report

City Manager, Iris Jessie, requested the Mayor/Council to reschedule the retreat for a later date in April. She offered some dates from which Mayor/Council could choose. Mayor Dixon advised that the Mayor/Council would review their respective schedules and notify Ms. Jessie of their availability at a later time.

Ms. Jessie advised that there were some additional topics some councilmembers wished to add to the retreat agenda (Budget/Teambuilding). She further reminded the Mayor/City Council of the FY2013Budget Calendar (See Exhibit A: FY2013Budget Calendar distributed during the meeting). Ms. Jessie said all budgetary matters could be discussed during the budget work sessions.

Councilmembers Stamps-Jones and Davis had no comment.

Councilmember Ruffin advised that prioritization of retreat discussion topics was necessary in the interest of time management.

Ms. Jessie advised that until the terms of the agreement could be better suited staff did not recommend the Professional Recreation Sports Programming and Management Serviced be adopted. She further explained that the fee structure ought to be such wherein instructors are paid from fees collected from participants.

Ms. Jessie explained that the intended objective for the future of recreational programming is that all instructor fees be paid from participant fees. The City, however, would assist with offsetting some of the costs until then.

Ms. Jessie advised Mayor/Council on the status of the Service Delivery Strategy (SDS) agreement. She indicated that at the last Clayton County Municipal Association (CCMA) meeting, Mr. Michael Brown, Mediator, advised six weeks would be the timeframe cities should anticipate receiving his feedback.

There were no additional comments.
